CAN CARE FOR BUT 40,000

Garrison So Informs the Gettysburg Celebration Committee.

Secretary Garrison has frankly informed the Gettysburg celebration comnission that he cannot assume financial responsibility for the entertainment of more than 40,000 veterans at the encamp-"If you have arranged that 10,000 in addition are to attend, you must provide the funds to take care of them,' said Mr. Garrison, in a telegram to the commission. "There are no funds available to me for this purpose, and I am positively prohibited by express acts of Congress from incurring one dollar's vorth of expense over and above the amounts specifically appropriated for this particular purpose. Should I do so would not only disobey the express law, but would lay myself open both to civil and criminal liability. If you have committed yourself to the entertainment of more than the 40,000 initially expected, you must make it perfectly plain to all those over 40,000 that the responsibility is entirely yours and that you will provide for them. I have no facilities, nor any prospect of getting any, which enable me to do more than take care of the 40.000 who up to this time have been the expected number."

Alarming Condition.

Discussing the urgent situation which has arisen Secretary Garrison said: "Unless the commissioners are in a position to supply the money needed for the additional and unprovided-for expense, they will have created an alarming condition of affairs. The commission has been making all the arrangements with respect to those who are to participate. The camp itself was placed by Congress under the care of the Secretary of War. The appropriation from Congress, and all previous arrangements, have been based upon an estimated attendance of 40,000 veterans. At this late date I am informed by the depot quartermaster on the ground that the commission has advised him that we must provide for 50,000. If 50,000 should come a most serious situation woud be encountered. I simply haven't the means to take care of more than the 40,000 originally planned for and I have no way of procuring any additional means.

Congress appropriated $150,000, which with a similar sum from Pennsylvania was intended to meet all the expenses of the encampment. The estimates for taking care of the 40,000 were $358,000, or $58,000 more than the combined appropriations of the federal and state goveernments.

Six Confederate veterans, three Union eterans, one Spanish war veteran and eleven other representatives, including Speaker Clark, will represent the House at the Gettysburg celebration. The Representatives Talbott, Maryland Stedman, North Carolina; Taylor, Alabama; Richardson, Alabama; Jones, Virginia; Estopinal, Louisiana (Confederate veteran); Sherwood, Ohio; Goulden New York; Kirkpatrick, Iowa; (Union reterans); Graham, Illinois; Sherley, Kentucky; Booher, Missouri; Dixon, Inliana; Mann and Payne, New York; Burke, South Dakota; Austin, Tennesee; Mondell, Wyoming, and Hulings, Pennsylvania.

District's Delegation.

The District of Columbia delegation of civil war veterans who will attend the Gettysburg anniversary will not exceed the original limitation of 405, according to Col. Thomas S. Hopkins, who has been appointed by the District Commissioners to take charge of the event for Washington. Col. Hopkins has a list of 405 northern and southern veterans, with a waiting list of about fifteen. In no event will he issue credentials to more than 405. If any of the original 405 fail to ask for badges and credentials the waiting list will have a chance. The District veterans have been assigned to forty-five tents, each holding nine men, and not one more cot can be obtained.

May Be Disappointed.

Much of the congestion, crowding and disappointment at Gettysburg will come does not understand he has to be registered and properly identified before he can be assigned to a bunk in a tent and a The mere presentation of a discharge or pension certificate will not amount to anything at the camp except to gain admittance for a sightseeing look around In order to get a bed and a place at the table for Washington veterans it is necessary to have been registered with Col. Hopkins in the Hibbs building, who will
